ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. The matter was called out for hearing in the first round then in the second round and lastly in the third round but none put appearance for the petitioner. Perused the special civil application, affidavit-in-reply and heard the learned counsel for the respondents.
2. This special civil application was ordered to be heard along with the special civil application No.519/86.

The aforesaid special civil application has already been decided by this Court on 8th September, 1997, and copy of the judgment delivered by this Court is tagged along with the papers of this special civil application.

3. The learned counsel for the respondents submitted that this special civil application may also be disposed of in the terms in which the special civil application No.519/86 and allied matters have been disposed of. Order accordingly.

4. The special civil application is disposed of with the direction to the respondents to consider the case of the petitioners with reference to the resolution dated 17th October, 1988 and subsequent resolutions on the subject. This exercise should be undertaken by the respondents within a period of three months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order. In case the petitioners are found entitled for the benefits under the aforesaid resolution and subsequent resolutions then they shall be entitled for all the consequential benefits which follow therefrom. In case for any reason, the petitioners are not entitled for the benefits under those resolutions then a reasoned order may be passed and copy of the same may be sent to the petitioners. Till the matter is considered by the respondents as directed above, the services of the petitioners shall continue. The special civil application and rule stand disposed of in the aforesaid terms with no order as to costs.
